
2014 Prevention Programs of the Unified Prevention Coalition

The community is invited to these upcoming educational programs.

- Monday, Feb. 24 at 7 p.m. “Saturday Night in the Suburbs” at Herndon High School, 700 Bennett St., Herndon. Features panel of high school seniors talking about what really goes on Saturday nights. FOR ADULTS ONLY. Rescheduled from Feb. 12.
- Tuesday, March 4 at 7 p.m. “Protecting Against the Realities of Substance Abuse” at Madison High School (Warhawk Hall), 2500 James Madison Dr., Vienna. Features panel. Middle school/high school students and parents encouraged to attend together.
- Monday, March 24 at 7 p.m. “Saturday Night in the Suburbs” at W.T. Woodson High School (Cavalier Hall), 9525 Main Street, Fairfax. Features panel of high school seniors talking about what really goes on Saturday nights. FOR ADULTS ONLY.
- Thursday, March 27 at 7 p.m. “Marijuana Harmless? Think Again” at Providence Presbyterian Church, 9019 Little River Turnpike, Fairfax. An important conversation on an important issue featuring distinguished panel. Register online by noon March 26 at www.unifiedpreventioncoalition.org; $10 adults, $5 students in advance.
- Thursday, April 24 at 7 p.m. “Saturday Night in the Suburbs” at Madison High School (Warhawk Hall), 2500 James Madison Dr., Vienna. Features panel of high school seniors talking about what really goes on Saturday nights. FOR ADULTS ONLY.
- Tuesday, April 29 at 7 p.m. “Perils of the College Drinking Culture” at Langley High School (Auditorium), 6520 Georgetown Pike, McLean. College-bound students and parents encouraged to attend together to see award-winning film HAZE and hear panel discussion.
- Monday, May 12 at 7 p.m. “Saturday Night in the Suburbs” at West Springfield High School (Spartan Hall), 6100 Rolling Rd., Springfield. Features panel of high school seniors talking about what really goes on Saturday nights. FOR ADULTS ONLY.
- Wednesday, May 21 at 7 p.m. “Perils of the College Drinking Culture” at Northern Virginia Community College, Ernst Community Cultural Center, 8333 Little River Turnpike, Annandale. College-bound students and parents encouraged to attend together to see award-winning film HAZE and hear panel discussion.

For more information, please visit www.unifiedpreventioncoalition.org or www.facebook.com/unifiedpreventioncoalition.

Updated Feb. 21, 2014